Navy Beef and Pork for 1857.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Provisions and Clothing,
June 2, 1856.

SEALED PROPOSALS, endorsed "Proposals for Beef," and "Proposals for Pork," as the case may be, will be received at this office until 3 o'clock, p. m., on Saturday, the 12th day of July next, for furnishing and delivering, free of all cost and risk to the United States, at the following navy-yards:

	Barrels Beef.	Barrels Pork.
At Charlestown, Mass	1,400	1,200
At Brooklyn, N. Y	2,400	1,800
At Gosport, Va	1,600	1,200
	5,400	4,200

One-half of said beef and pork must be delivered at each of the above named ports, respectively, by the 1st of April, 1857, unless earlier deliveries should be required by the chief of this bureau. Payment to be made within thirty days after delivery.

Bidders must offer their prices separately and distinctly in separate offers for the beef and for the pork, and for each of the places of delivery, covering all expenses and all charges.

The beef must be from well fattened cattle, slaughtered between the 1st day of November, 1856, and the 1st day of January, 1857, and weighing not less than six hundred pounds, net weight, each. The legs and leg rands of the hind quarters, and the shins and shoulders, clods, the shoulders of mutton and ends of sticking pieces, and at least eight pounds from the neck end of each fore quarter, or the parts marked Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, on the drawing or delineation of the fore and hind quarters of an ox, which will be attached to and form a part of the contract, must be wholly excluded from each hind and fore quarter, after the carcass, instead of being cut up as a cleaver, must be cut through with a saw and axe, to give the meat a square, neat and smooth appearance. The pieces of not less than eight pounds, each.

The pork must be packed from corn-fed, well fattened hogs, slaughtered between the 1st day of November, 1856, and the first day of January, 1857, and weighing not less than two hundred pounds each, without the heads, jowls, necks, shoulders, hams, leg pieces, butts, rumps, and all rejected pieces; and must be cut with a saw and knife, in pieces weighing not less than six pounds, nor more than twelve pounds, each.

Both the beef and pork must be salted with at least one and a half bushel of Turk's Island, Isle of May, Key West package, or St. Ubes salt; and the barrels shall be filled full in each of the following manner, viz: Three-fourths of one of the pulverized saltpetre to each barrel, exclusive of a pickle, to be made from fresh water as strong as salt will make it, and must be perfectly bright and clear.

Each barrel must contain two hundred net weight of beef or pork, and no excess of weight in either article will be paid for.

The barrels must be entirely new, and be made of the best seasoned heart of white oak staves, and headings;—the staves to be not less than five-eighths of an inch thick, and the headings not less than three-fourths of an inch thick. They must be three-hoop ever, including the iron hoops, with the best white oak or hickory hoops, and each barrel must have on it four iron hoops, viz: one of one and a half inch in width on each bilge, and one of one and an eighth inch in width on each end, each to be of one-sixteenth of an inch thick. Each barrel must be of the internal capacity of thirty-two gallons.

Each barrel must be branded by burning on its head the words "Navy Beef," or "Navy Pork," as the case may be, with the contractor's name and the year when packed, and weight; and shall also be branded on the bung stave with the letter B or P, as the case may be.

The beef and pork will unless otherwise directed by the chief of this bureau, be inspected by the inspecting officers at the respective navy-yards aforesaid and by some "veteran inspector of sales and provisions," who shall be selected by the respective commanding officers; but their charges for such inspection must be paid by the respective contractors, who must likewise have the barrels put in good shipping order, to the satisfaction of the commandants of the respective navy-yards aforesaid, after inspection, and at their own expense.

Two or more proposals, in a sum equal to one half the estimated amount of the contract will be required, and twenty per centum in addition will be withheld from the amount of each subgreen to be made as collateral security for the due and faithful performance of the respective contracts are complied with in all respects;—and are to be forfeited to the United States in the event of failure to complete the deliveries within the prescribed period. In case of failure on the part of the contractors to deliver all or any of the beef or pork above mentioned, of the quality and at the time and places above provided, the contractor will forfeit and pay to the United States, as liquidated damages, a sum of money equal to twice the amount to be paid in the contract price for the beef or pork not delivered thereof, which liquidated damages may be recovered from time to time as they accrue. Payment will be made by the United States at the periods above specified, (excepting the twenty per centum, to be withheld until the completion of the contract, as before stated,) after the said beef and pork shall have been inspected and received, and bills for the same shall have been presented to the navy agents respectively, duly approved by the commandants of the respective navy-yards, according to the terms of the contracts.

The quality beef to be excluded will be particularly designated in the engraving to be attached to the contract.—Persons interested can obtain them on application at this office.

Bidders whose proposals are accepted (and none others) will be forthwith notified, and as early as practicable a contract will be transmitted to them for execution, which contract must be returned to the bureau within ten days, exclusive of the time required for the regular transmission of the mail.

A record, or duplicate of the letter informing a bidder of the acceptance of his proposal, will be deemed a notification thereof, within the meaning of the act of 1846, and this bid will be made and accepted in conformity with this understanding.

Every offer made must be accompanied (as directed in the 6th section of the act of Congress making appropriations for the naval service for 1856-'57, approved 10th August, 1856,) by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation within ten days, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the article proposed.

This guarantee must be accompanied by the certificate of the United States district judge, United States district attorney, or navy agent, that the guarantors are able to make good their guarantee.

No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by such guarantee.

The bidder's name and residence, and the name of each member of the firm, where a company offers, with the Christian names of each, must be distinctly inscribed in full, on the outside of the envelope containing the offer.

Under the joint resolution of Congress, approved 27th March, 1854, "all bids for supplies of provisions, clothing, and small stores for the use of the navy, may be rejected at the option of the department, if made by any one not known as a manufacturer of, or regular dealer in, the article proposed to be furnished, which fact, or the reverse must be distinctly stated in bids offered."

The house, with its extensive grounds, cool, shady groves, and general convenience, is unsurpassed as a transient house.—It should be kept so—one closed—lacking no one of the essentials of such an establishment.

The commodious building now in process of erection, with all the modern improvements, will be finished by the first of August, and will contain such accommodations, both in point of taste and comfort, as cannot fail to satisfy parents that while their daughters are enjoying the benefits of mental culture, they have also the comforts of a refined home.

This institution is established with a view to afford to young ladies the most perfect combination of advantages for the attainment of a thorough and accomplished education, and no pains or expense will be spared to render it in reality what it professes to be, a school of superior merit. Miss Eastman the principal, was at the head of a school in New England previous to her residence in Pennsylvania, and, for the last six years, has been known to the patrons of Aston Ridge Seminary, as presiding teacher in that institution.

The building which is to be erected for her use will contain every accommodation. The village and surrounding country are distinguished for healthfulness and beauty, and the subscriber has confidence that parents who entrust their daughters to Miss Eastman will have no reason to regret it.

Miss Eastman will be aided by an efficient corps of Teachers.

THE GREAT

Spring and Summer Medicines!

Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

OF all the remedies that have been discovered during the present age for the "thousand ills that flesh is heir to," none equal this wonderful preparation. Only three years have elapsed since the discoverer (who spent a decade in studying, experimentizing and perfecting it) first introduced it to the public, and it is already recognized by the most eminent physicians in all parts of the country to be the most surprising and effective remedy for certain diseases of the blood they have knowledge of.

All other compounds or syrups of the root h ve hitherto failed to command the sanction of the faculty, because, on being tested, they have been found to contain noxious ingredients, which neutralize the good effects of the Sarsaparilla, an l oftentimes injure the health of the patient... is not so with Hurley's preparation.

This is the pure and genuine extract of the root, and will on trial, be found to effect a certain and perfect cure of the following complaints and diseases:

Affections o the Bones, Habitual Costiveness,
Debility, Indigestion,
Diseases of the Kidneys, Liver Complaints,
Dyspepsia, Piles,
Erysipelas, Pulmonary Diseases,
Female Irregularities, Scrofula, or King's Evil,
Fistula, Syphilis,
And all Skin Diseases.

Besides curing the above, it is also known to be a great and powerful tonic, purifying the blood and invigorating the system.

In short, it is without exception, in the cases mentioned and its general effect on the system, the most efficacious, as it is the most desirable, remedy of the age. It is already extensively used throughout the country, and is fast obtaining an European reputation. The instances of cures it has effected are daily coming to the proprietors knowledge, and he has no hesitation in recommending it to one and all who desire to procure relief from suffering. One bottle will prove this, its effects will be too apparent to admit of further doubt.

☞Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.

PATENT ADJUSTABLE

Reaper & Mower Combined

For the Harvest of 1856.

THE only real, complete combination of the two Machines in the one. Valuable improvments have been made to this machine since the last harvest; among them is the easier wheel and the tongue, which takes off the heft from the neck of the horses, exceptthe weight of the tongue alone. Other improvements have also been made which makes it the most complete Harvesting Machine in the world. It is no new, untried machine—the machine has received 128 first premiums since 1854, in competition with all other machines of note. This fact alone is clear proof of its worth

I am also manufacturing Manny's Portable Hay and Cotton Press. This Press is worthy the attention of farmers who are marketing hay. It is easily moved from one field to another on its own wheels by a team; will press in the field from thirty to fifty bales per day. I have, also, Horse Powers, Threshing Machines, Plows, Saddle & Jones' Corn Planter, and Farming implements generally Grass and Garden Seeds Warehouse on Sixth street, between Main and Market.

WEDNESDAY.....JULY 2, 1856

Fremont's Record more acceptable to the South than Fillmore's.

We have published extracts from the Congressional Globe, showing that Fillmore, while a member of Congress, voted in favor of abolishing slavery in the District of Columbia; voted in favor of abolishing the slave trade between the States; voted in favor of excluding slavery from the Territories of the United States; voted to justify the murder by slaves of their masters, and the forcible assertion of their right to liberty.

During Mr. Fillmore's entire service in Congress he never gave any but an abolition vote. He not only voted with the abolitionists upon one, two, or three occasions, but upon all occasions. For instance, near the close of his Congressional career, in 1843, the following resolutions were moved by Slade:

WHEREAS, by a law of the United States framed on the 15th May, 1827, the foreign slave trade is declared to be piracy, and is made punishable by death; and whereas, there is, and has long been carried on in the District of Columbia, within sight of the Halls of the two Houses of Congress and the residence of the Chief Executive Magistrate of the nation, a trade in man involving all principles of outrage on humanity, and which have drawn down upon it the maledictions of the civilized world and stigmatised those engaged in it as the enemies of the human race; and whereas, in enormity, by reason of its being carried on in the heart of a nation whose institutions are based upon, whose laws have in effect proclaimed its great and superlative iniquity; aggravated moreover, by its outrage on the sensibilities of a Christian community, by sundering the ties of Christian brotherhood, and by the anguish of its remorseless violation of all the domestic relations, rendered the more deep and enduring by the hallowing influence of the Christian religion upon those relations and by the increased strength which it gives to the domestic affections; and, whereas, this trade in human beings is carried on under the authority of laws enacted by the Congress of the United States, thereby involving the people of all the States in its guilt and disgrace—a guilt and disgrace enhanced by the consideration that those laws are a virtual usurpation of power, the Constitution of the United States having conferred upon Congress no right to establish the relation of slavery, or to sanction and protect the slave trade, in any portion of the confederacy. Therefore, Resolved," &c., &c.

Fillmore, in company with Slade, Giddings and Adams, voted for this resolution.

On the 3d Jan'y, 1843, Mr. Morgan presented a resolution instructing the Committee on the Territories to inquire into the expediency of repealing an act passed by the Territorial Legislature of Florida, entitled "An act to prevent the future migration or emigration of free negroes and mulattoes into said Territory," or to so much thereof as imposes a capitation tax on such of them as may enter said Territory and athorizes their sale for ninety years, for the non-payment of said tax.

Black moved to lay the resolution on the table; yeas 113, nays 89. Fillmore voted in the negative.

On the 23d of February, Briggs, of Massachusetts, asked leave to submit the following resolution:

WHEREAS, all laws passed by the Governor and Legislative Council of Florida are in full force, until disapproved by Congress, therefore

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed forthwith to report the following bill:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That an act passed by the Governor and Legislative Council of the Territory of Florida, approved by the said Governor on 5th March, 1842, entitled "an act to prevent the future migration of free negroes or mulattoes to this Territory and for other purposes, be and the same is hereby disapproved, and shall henceforth be of no force."

Briggs asked a suspension of the rules; yeas 66, nays 104. Fillmore yes, in favor of Briggs.

Fremont, the candidate of the straight-out nigger-worshippers, has no such damning record as this. For a few months he was United States Senator from California, and upon the two or three occasions he was called upon to vote his sentiments about slavery, he voted against the abolitionists, as will be seen from the following extracts:

IN SENATE OF U. S. SEPT. 11, 1850.

Mr. Underwood, of Kentucky, called up the bill for the aid of the American Colonization Society. The slaves that were recaptured on the barque Pons were turned over to the Colonization Society by the authority of the United States, sent to Liberia, and there kept at the expense of the society for one or two years. Most of them were children of twelve, fifteen and sixteen years of age. The society thinks that the expense of feeding, clothing, and educating these people, which was thus devolved upon them by the action of the government, ought to be repaid them. It was certainly an expense incurrred by the society, through the action of the government in throwing those young negroes upon them for maintenance, instead of taking them, as the government was bound to do by law, and providing for them. That is the nature of the claim. They simply ask that so much shall be paid them as the society, from its own experience, pays in reference to its own emigrants. The claim was reported on favorably two years ago. A similar report has again been made; and as the necessities of the society require that they should have the money, I hope, said Mr. U., the Senate will take up the bill. The Senate proceeded to take up the bill, and proceeded to consider it as in committee of the whole.

Mr. Turney asked for the reading of the report of the committee.

The secretary read the report accordingly. It sets forth that a liberal construction of the act of Congress, of March 3, 1819, would require that the government should provide for the support of those recaptured Africans for a reasonable time after they had been landed in Liberia, and that it is beneath the dignity of the government to devolve this duty upon the society. The petition of the executive committee of the society, which the committee incorporated in their report, states that on the 16th of December, 1845, the United States ship Yorktown, Commodore Bell, landed at Monrovia, in Liberia, from the slaver Pons, seven hundred and fifty recaptured Africans in a naked, starving, and dying condition, all of them, excepting twenty-one, being under the age of twenty-one. The United States made no provision for their support after they were landed. ° ° The services of providing for the destitute negroes were not required to be performed by the society under their constitution, but the alternative was to leave these recaptured Africans to starve and die, and the society therefore cheerfully took charge of them, relying upon the government of the United States to refund the cost to them.

The question was discussed at length as to whether the United States would pay these just and legal demands; and on the vote being taken for the engrossment of the bill to a third reading Mr. Fremont's name is found recorded in the negative, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Badger, Baldwin, Bell, Chase, Clayton, Davis, of Massachusetts, DAYTON, Dodge of Wisconsin Dodge of Iowa, Douglas, Ewing, Felch, Greene, Hale, Hamlin, Jones, Mangum, Pearce, Pratt, Seward, Shields, Smith, Spruance, Sturgeon, Underwood, Wales, Walker, Whitcomb, and Winthrop—29.

NAYS—Messrs. Atchison, Barnwell, Benton, Butler, Dawson, Dickinson, Downs, FREMONT, Hunter, King, Mason, Rusk, Sebastian, Soule, Turney, and Yulee—19.

It will be seen that Fremont voted with Atchison, Butler, Hunter, Mason, and Soule, and against Seward, Hale, and Dayton.

Again: in the United States Senate on the 18th day of September, 1850, the bill to prevent persons from enticing away slaves from the District of Colmbia was under consideration, and John P. Hale "moved that it be committed to the Committee of the District of Columbia, with instructions to so amend it as to ABOLISH SLAVERY IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA." On the vote being taken, FREMONT'S name was recorded in the NEGATIVE. [See Cong. Globe, Thirty-first Congress, part 2, p. 1819.]

Tried by these political antecedents, Fremont would be vastly more acceptable to the South than Fillmore. Tried by the platforms upon which they are presented, they are equally objectionable, for both condemn the repeal of the Missouri restriction. The South can accept neither of them without ignominiously surrendering her constitutional rights.

The Identity of the Position of Fillmore and Fremont—The Question of Slavery.

By universal consent the old questions of party policy have been ignored for the present contest, and the only issue before the country is presented in the principles of the Kansas-Nebraska bill. Approval of the repeal of the Missouri restriction, and of the principle of State equality, asserted in that measure, is the test of political fidelity and of a candidate's claim to the support of the South. Whoever condemns the repeal of the Missouri restriction, no matter what his professions, is practically a Black Republican, and as such, the South will spurn his claims to its confidence. Whoever condemns the repeal of the Missouri restriction, no matter what his party relations, will be accepted as trustworthy and be received into full fellowship by the Black Republican party.

Let the South examine how Mr. Fillmore and Mr. Fremont stand on this test question.

Mr. Kennedy, keeper of Fillmore's conscience and guardian of this political interests, positively asserts that his patron was averse to the repeal of the Missouri restriction. If this statement was untrue, Mr. Fillmore would either give, or authorize a denial. But he does nothing of the sort. On the contrary, by the act of accepting the Know Nothing nomination and endorsing the principles of the Platform, he confirms the truth of Kennedy's statement. For the Know Nothing Platform, which Fillmore accepts, distinctly and emphatically condemns the repeal of the Missouri restriction.

Such is Fillmore's position; and such also is the position of the Black Republican candidate.—Fremont denounces the repeal of the Missouri Restriction. The Black Republican Platform denounces the repeal of the Missouri restriction, but neither the candidate nor the Platform of the Black Republican party is committed to the restoration of the Missouri restriction. Fillmore goes as far, and only as far, as Fremont, in resistance to the rights of the South. The Know Nothing Platform as distinctly condemns the repeal of the Missouri restriction as does the Black Republican Platform; but, like the latter, exacts no pledge for the re-enactment of the measure.

Will any Know Nothing organ, or any other paper in the interests of Fillmore, venture to affirm that there is even a shadow of difference between his position and the position of Fremont, in respect to the repeal of the Missouri restriction and the great principles of the Kansas-Nebraska act? Obviously and indisputably Fremont and Fillmore stand together in opposition to the rights of the South. Tried by the test of fidelity to the Constitution, one is as much a Black Republican as the other. Fillmore is as bad as Fremont; Fremont is no worse than Fillmore.—They are equally unworthy of Southern confidence and support.

☞ La Verdad, the organ of the Cuban patriots, published formerly in New Orleans, but now in New York, reviews the action of the late Cincinnati Convention, and expresses a very decided preference for Buchanan over all other candidates. La Verdad concludes:

"We fully believe that Buchanan will gladly improve any favorable opportunity to put in practice the thoughts expressed in the conference at Ostende, for we are persuaded that as an American, and what is more, an American Statesman, he sincerely desires the liberty of our country.

"Between Buchanan and Fillmore we are for the tormer; for he at least has not shown himself like the other, an enemy of our country."

This declaration is made in view of the platform of principles which our Convention adopted at Cincinnati, as well as of the important document issued by the three ministers at Ostende, in which the following passages occur:

"We firmly believe that the vital interests of the United States are seriously involved in its possessions of Cuba; the Union can never enjoy repose nor possess reliable security without it."

"Self-preservation is the first law of nature with States as well as individuals; and we shall be justified in wresting it (Cuba) from Spain, if we possess the power."

"Cuba is as necessary to the North American Republic, as any of its present members."

We know well that all that part of the Democratic platform, which defines the position of the party in relation to foreign policy, the Monroe Doctrine, the Gulf of Mexico, Central America and the Interoceanic passage, will encounter the North a very serious opposition from the mixed factions which make up the antagonist party. Since every increase of territory on our own borders must tend to preserve the equilibrium of federal power between the North and the South, it cannot be expected that those hordes of aggressons upon our rights, combined as the Black Republican party, led by such arch-union breakers as Seward and his clan, aided by almost all the Northern Know Nothings by their direct votes for Fremont; and aided indirectly by Southern Know Nothings who vote for Fillmore, will look with complacency upon the probable effect of the Democratic policy when it shall have become vitalized by the election of Buchanan and Breckinridge.

Beware of Forgery.

Listen to what Prentice says—

"We wish to present, in a single brief article, the overwhelming testimony already laid before the public—the testimony of Mr. Clay in his own handwriting and the testimony of Gen. Jackson in his own handwriting."

We have strong reason to believe that this pretended testimony is a forgery. The extract from a letter which the Journal has been publishing, and which it says was written by Gen. Jackson, is beyond all doubt a forgery. Gen. Jackson never wrote any such letters. BEWARE OF FORGERY!

☞ Within the past week there have been twenty-three withdrawals from the Know Nothing Lodge at Rochester, in Butler county, Ky.

It is said that Buchanan and Breckinridge will gain one hundred votes in Woodford county in November.

In Logan county, the stronghold of Know Nothingism, the old line Whigs will go for Buck and Breck almost to a man.

☞ There was a meeting of old line Whigs at Henderson the other day, at which the Know Nothings assembled in full force and voted down all the resolutions offered. According to Know Nothing philosophy, old line Whigs have no rights at all.

Hon. Garret Davis' Speech.

According to appointment, the Hon. Garrett Davis spoke last night in the Court House yard.

A large number of persons, of all parties, gathered to hear him. The Know Notnings marched from their lodges in procession, with torch-lights, transparencies, flags, &c., attended by bands of music, and crowds of boys and negroes.

Mr. Davis has a very weak voice, and the noise made by the motley crowd, prevented him from being heard twenty feet from the stand. This was a real disappointment to many persons who desired to hear Mr. Davis, and it has reached that point in Louisville that it has become a positive nuisance. No speaker can be heard in Louisville in open air. Know Nothing rowdyism is omnipotent, even at their own meetings.

There was but little lost, however, in not hearing Mr. Davis. His speech was but a rehash of the Louisville Journal. The speaker descended to all the vulgar slang that has been heaped upon Mr. Buchanan by Prentice. He licked his lips over the slang of "ten cent Jimmy," and pledged his personal honor to the truth of the slander. He charged Mr. Buchanan with being an abolitionist, and gloated over the charge that Mr. Buchanan was the author of the bargain and corruption story.

His speech was in truth the foul drippings of the pot-house, hissed ont from his palsied lungs with all the venom of the adder. It was the feted effervescence of demagoguery, worthy only o the Louisville Journal, and mortifying to those who had expected better things from Mr. Davis.

So complete was his failure, that when he concluded his speech there were not fifty persons listening to him.

☞ An old-line Whig meeting was held in this city on Monday night. A large number were present, constituting some of the most respectable gentlemen in the city. A number of Know Nothings and Know Nothing sympathisers were also present.

A. A. Gordon, one of our most repectable merchants, presided, and A. O. Brannin, of the banking house of Tucker, Brannin & Co., acted as Secretary.

Quite an interesting discussion arose as to the personal feelings of the several gentlemen relative to the Presidential candidates.

Ccl. P. B. Atwood, a Know Nothing sympathiser and bitter hater of Democracy, offered a proposition to instruct the delegates to the State Whig Convention to vote for Fillmore.

A. O. Brannin, R. A. Logan, G. Cochran, and others, expressed their hostility to trameling the action of the delegates. Col. Atwood advocated it with some warmth, and expressed his decided preference for Fillmore. Dr. Wible thought that this meeting was not called as a Fillmore assemblage. Messrs. Jas. Anderson, Thos. Anderson and L. L. Shreve urged the necessity of re-organizing the Whig party.

Finally the motion to instruct the delegates was stricken out, and the chair, to be assisted by L. L. Shreve, authorized to appoint nine delegates to the State Convention.

We very strongly suspect that these two gentlemen, (Messrs. Gordon and Shreve,) to whom was entrusted the appointment of the delegates, have so strong a hatred of Democracy, that they will appoint a Fillmore delegation. Time will determine. They are honorable gentlemen, but they have strong prejudices. There is one thing, however, very certain, that they cannot bind the Old Line Whigs of Kentucky by such action. They will not vote for the Know Nothing candidate, if twenty conventions were to determine for him.

☞ We know that our articles revealing the character of Mr. Buchanan's course in 1825 have caused many persons, hitherto the bitter enemies of the American order and the zealous supporters of Mr. Buchanan, to declare most vehemently that they will not vote for Mr. B. under any circumstances.—Journal.

This is as foul a lie as Prentice is in the habit of telling. In the whole length and breadth of the country he does not know a single Democrat who will not vote for the Democratic nominees. The above assertion by the Journal is an unrelieved and unmitigated lie, and Prentice knew it was a lie when he wrote it.

BOLTERS RETURNING.—Mr. John R. Edie, who headed the bolters from the June meeting of the National American Council last year, has determined to give his earnest support to Fillmore and Donelson.—Journal.

Yes, and this Edie is as foul an abolitionist as there is in Pennsylvania.

PRENTICE IN 1856.—"Buchanan on being summoned by Gen. Jackson as a witness, lyingly expressed a belief that Mr. Clay had been guilty of bargain and corruption."

PRENTICE IN 1830.—Mr. Buchanan, however, was an honorable man, and hesitated not to say, publicly, that he had never made to General Jackson the overtures in question, or any that bore the least resemblance to them."

☞ The Lewistown (Miffin County, Pa.,) Gazette, heretofore a Fillmore paper, has taken down that flag and now goes for Fremont. The Blair County Pa., Whig, the Beaver, Pa., Argus Crawford County, Pa., Journal all hoist the Fremont flag. The Boston Jonrnal, formerly an American paper, with the largest circulation of any paper in Massachnsetts, goes for Fremont.

What Donelson thought of Fillmore in 1851.

In the Washington Union of October 18th 1855, while A. J. Donelson was its editor, can be fonnd the following article.

There has been an idea that Mr. Fillmore was strong before the people of the South. This idea made him, for a time the favorite candidate for nomination there. But the idea is fast falling away. In fact, Mr. Fillmore's strength at the South never had any root in the public mind HE WAS A BITTER PILL—A VERY BITTER PILL—TO THE SOUTH IN 1848: and she took him only for the sake of General Taylor; and since then he was done literally nothing specially to commend himself to Southern favor. It is true, he signed the fugitive slave law; but it would have been stark madness, utter lunacy—in him or in any other President, to have refused that signature. It was an act of the most indispntable and imperative necessity, and nothing more. And with the single exception of that act, HIS ADMINISTRATION HAS BEEN ONE LONG SAD, TEDIOUS FAILURE AND BLUNDER. Who believes that, with the proper spirit, capacity, and effort in the White House, we should have this disgraceful munster roll of triumphant, insulting, and yet unpnnished negro and abolitionists mobs, insurrections, and murders? Who beleives that, with the right kind of an executive, our government would now have to stand in its present attitude of humiliation towards Spain, and the European intervening powers, and at the same time in such miserable self contradiction in its course towards the revolutionary provinces of Mexico? The executive inefficiency in the execution of the fugitive law, and the wretched blunder in the Cuban business—from its commencement to its close, so far as it is yet closed—have doomed the administration at the Sonth Add to this that its tariff policy is utterly at war with Southern interests, and the last official explanation of that policy in the columns of the Republic, pointing directly to a restoration of the "black tariff" of 1842, is enough to rouse throughout the whole South the most bitter and wide spread hostility. With these facts in view, it is plain that President Fillmore can have no real strength with the people of the South even if we leave out of view the great Galphinodium which his administration inherited, or the geat Garden odium in which it is implicated. And it is in these circumstances that we find President Fillmore putting the last hand to his ruin at the South, by bringing ont anew, and with justification, his old, and for a time dormant, abolitionism.

Our own explanation, therefore, of the Webster movement in the N. Y. Courier and Washington Republic is, that the politicians of the Whig party feel that the Southern game for President Fillmore is lost and that some other candidate must be found, it seems to us that the President must have come to this conclusion. On any other supposition the rival of the Erie letter is inexplicable. Its republication, with comments in justification of it, was Mr. Fillmore's desperate dash at the support of the North; or, if not so, it was a blunder without parallel in the records of political blunders and folly.

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer of June 1st.]

Col. G. D. Hodge on Geo. D. Prentice.

The Louisville Journal, of June 21st, in commenting upon my course in supporting the nominees of the Democratic Convention, has thought proper to attribute that course to entirely selfish motives, and as it is pleased to say to "disappointed ambition." So far as that charge is calculated to affect my own feelings of self-respect, it is harmless. But the Journal occupies a position of great prominence as a political text book. As the recognized organ of the American party, it is read by thousands with feelings of almost religious faith, confidence and veneration.—Among those thousands I remember with gratitude that I have many warm-hearted friends—friends who have been "faithful and true to me;" their respect, their esteem is of far greater value to me than any prospects of political promotion, even in the fullest success I could anticipate, and I owe it to them no less than myself to answer promptly all such aspersions. What could have been the incentive on the part of the Journal and its editor, George D. Prentice, to wantonly attack an individual, aspiring to no political position, before the community, quietly and unostentatiously exercising the privilge belonging to every private citizen of attaching himself to any political organization his conscience and his judgment approved of, I am at a loss to know. True, the partial kindness of friends in the editorial corps of the State, had indnced them to notice n somewhat complimentary terms my political position; but it was doubtless intended by them, and looked upon by their readers, as possessing no great importance than that attached to any other expression ot kindly interest for an individual by his friends. Certainly, there was nothing in these notices of sufficient importance to excite the ire of the thunderer of the Journal. There were two passages in the lives of both Mr. Prentice and myself, whinh, while they authorized me to believe that he would fully mature his judgment before indulging in censures harsh and severe against me, render it on my part anything but agreeable to engage in an unfriendly conflict with him. The choice was his, and he has made his election—so be it.

The resolutions offered by myself at the session of the August Council, 1855, of the American party, were published in your paper, and all who chose to do so have persued them. Of them, their merit, value or importance, it becomes me to be silent; this, however, I have the right to say, that they were the expression of my views of the objects of the American party; views entertained not only then, as my understanding of the real principles advocated by the party, but avowed by me every where, on the stump during the canvass of 1855; views coincided with by hundreds of the members of that body, with whom I exchanged opinions on the subje:t, and yet in the minds of many they were too liberal a construction of the ritual of that order. In such a state of affairs I desired to know—I had a right to know—whether the authoritive sanction of the State Conncil sustained me. For this purpose I offered the resolntions, for this purpose I advocate them, and on this ground, when finding myself in antagonism with the principlos of the order, I retired from it. Will Mr. Prentice say that as an honest gentleman I could do otherwise? Was it disappointed ambition to wait patiently until every election had taken place, until no improper motive of selfish ambition could have actuated me before making the issne? Let Mr. Prentice be just. I suppose there would hardly be an expression of disapprobation upon the resolution in regard to Catholics, for if a Catholic disconnects his respect for the Roman Pontiff as a priest, from the reverence many are accustomed to manifest for him as a sovereign, it seemed to me that not only as a member of a political organization, but as a Christian gentleman, I could not hesitate to regard him as in every way a good member of society—an honest Republican. I was strengthened in these convictions by the expression of sentiment of many able eloquent and gifted men, both dead and living. Nay, I had the authority of Mr. Geo. D. Prentice himself upon this subject, for I found that while editor of the Hartford Weekly Review, he, in an editorial of July 27, 1829, thus eloquently expresses his views upon the subject of Catholicism:

"Decidedly as we dissent from the Catholics in some matters of importance, we have no sympathy with the prejudices with which as a people they are regarded by a large portion of the community—a system of religion that can number among its votaries such men as Fenelon, Lafayette and Charles Carroll, cannot be either absurd or monstrously impious. Those among us who suppose that a Catholic can hardly be a good member of society, should remember that many who have professed the Roman Catholic religion are among the fixed stars in the moral and intellectual firmament. Those who suppose that it would be a degradation in them to associate with Catholics, should remember that there have been individuals among them whose names have left a train of moral glory that will pass on forever, brightening from age to age."

Able and eloquent as the article is, it is far too lengthy (occupying a column) to be quoted entire in this communication. That these were not the hasty and impulsive expressions of an impetuous nature, I am convinced, since in an editorial of Augnst 10, 1829, in response to an attack from some precocious and premature Know Nothing drawn upon him by the editorial, a portion of woich has been quoted, Mr. Prentice in his forcible anp eloquent manuer.

"We stated two weeks ago that the Roman Catholics of the present day were in favor of religious toleration. The editor of the Observer denies it. Can it be that he is sincere in his denial? Can he be ignorant of the notorious fact that throughout England, Scotland and Ireland the Catholics have for many years been the uniform champions of religious liberty?" and again: "Will he say that religious freedom has been invaded in Catholic France? The French Magna Charta, framed and adopted by Catholics, provides that the established religion of the country shall be that of Rome; but that all religionists, without distinction of sect, shall enjoy equal privileges."

In an editorial of August 24, 1829, he again comes gallantly to the charge, and elaborates himself through two columns. September the 7th, 1829, through a column and a half, he fights unwearedly the battle of the Catholics, and by a coup de grace seems to finish his antagonist.

Time and space forbid the full quotation of these able articles. Doubtless they had been consigned by Prentice to the deep abyss of long-buried memories. If, however, at the mention of them, any feeling of tenderness for his long-neglected offspring stirs his heart; if, as he looks back through the long vista of more than a quater of a century, to that time when proudly and fearlessly, in all the vigor and chivalry of his young and unsullied intellect, he spoke out manfully his convictions, he fain would see them once again. The political charnel-house shall give up its dead; his eye shall rest again upon faces once regarded with fond paternal tenderness, now stained and worn by the lapse of time and parental neglect, yet even now having in every lineament the vital, unmistakable evidences of the genius which has illuminated even the errors and sins of Prentice.

A brief word more. Even had Mr. Prentice convicted me of political incoesistency, can he boast of that clear record which would entitle him to cast the first stone at me? Mr. Prentice nas been for years regarded in the South as a sentinel upon the watch-towers, to warn us of dangers threntening Southern institutions. He would donbtless resent as an insult any imputation upon his soundness as a Southern man. His disciples would be wroth at the charge of Abolitionism were I to make it against him, yet I find him at this same remarkable epoch of his life, in the to him eventful year 1829, in an editorial of the 19th of October, exclaimiug:

"The purchase of Texas must be opposed. Every man who does not wish to see the power of the Northern and Western States depart forever; every man who does not wish to see a dozen new slave States added to the Union, and to hear the cries of additional millions of wretched negroes going up to meet the Lord in the air and impreate vengeance upon our land, will oppose the purchase of Texas with a deep and irresistable determination."

Let him learn that his record is in Kentucky. I pledge myself to produce it when he dares challenge the proof, and in the mean time let him in forming his judgment of his fellow men, exercize that charity which begins at home.

☞ The Russellville Herald says:

From all sections of our county we hear complaints in relation to the tobacco. Owing to the scarcity of plants and the backwardness of the season, not over half of the usual quantity will be produced in Logan during the present season. We believe such is the prospect throughout the State. In view of these facts prices have already advanced.

OBITUARY.

Died in Edmonson county, on the 24th day of April last, Captain SYLVANUS JOHNSON, in the 76th year of his age Capt. Johnson was born in Virginia, married a niece of Patrick Henry, and was engaged in merchandising for sometime in Petersburg, and Fincastle. Afterwards he moved to this State, where he lived in the confidence and affection of his friends and neighbors. He had no superiors, and but few equals. Few men have lived and died with as few enemies. He has left a beloved wife, and kind and affectionate children to mourn their irreparable loss. He was a kind husband and affectionate father, and beloved and respected by all that knew him. Capt. Johnson died as he had lived, a firm believer in the Christian religion, and died in the hope of a glorious resurrection beyond the tomb, and a reunion of wife, children, friends and neighbors in the last day, in a clime of unfading bliss, at God's right hand. Fond wife, sorrow not as those who have no hope. How consoling to think that your companion was spared to live out his three score years and ten, and when the messenger came he was ready to go, and calmly sunk into the sleep of death, and is now resting from all his labors. His toils are o'er, and his spirit in the hands of that God who gave it. Affectionate children, imitate the example of your sainted father, that your last end may be like his, for if you believe that Jesus died, you must believe that he rose again from the dead, and that when Jesus shall come again, he will bring your father with him, and what a blessed meeting it will be.

"Thou art gone to the grave, but we will not deplore thee
Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian, thy guide;
He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee,
And death hath no sting since the Saviour hath died."

A new edition of the People's Pamphlet, giving the rise and progress and wonderful cures of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, from 1840 to the present time, given gratis by the agents o this valuable medicine. It is richly worth a perusal. This unparralleled preparation is receiving more testimonals of its wonderful efficacy in removing pains, than any other medicine ever offered to the public. And these testimonals come not alone from the ignorant, bnt from persons of every degree of intelligence, and every rank of life. Physicians of the first respectability and perfectly conversant with the nature of diseases and remedies, have recommended this as one of the most effectual in their line of preparations for the extinction of pain.

As an internal remedy the Pain Killer has no equal. It will cure Cholera, Cholic, Summer Complaint, Dysentary, Dyspepsia, Asthama, Rheumatism, &c., by taking it internally and bathing with it freely. It is the best liniment in America. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to bad sores, bruises, sprains burns and scalds, either on man or beast. For sick head-ache and tooth-ache, don't fail to try it.—Full descriptions in the "People's Pamphlet."

☞ A letter from a highly intelligent citizen of Hardin county, informs us that the Democracy feel confident that Hardin county will give a majority for Buchanan and Breckinridge in November. The Know Nothing majority last August was 812.

is unquestionably not only a luxury to take but decidedly the most powerful curative agent ever offered to the suffering. It acts promptly and efficiently in all cases, removing disease from the system, and restoring the invalid to perfect health. Amongst the class of affections for which it is so meritoriously popular, we would mention Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Bronchitis, and all cutaneous eruptions. This is just the time to use it with advantage.

FROGS FOR THE NEW YORK MARKET.—We learn from the Albany Argus that a man is constantly engaged in that city in buying up frogs for the New York market, where they command a high price. The consumption of this article is not alone confined to the French, but it also indulged in to a considerable extent by Americans.

Com. Stockton's letter of acceptance says: I will not let the Union slide, if my body can stop its motion. He adds: "I accept of this nomination as a compliment to inflexible American sentiments, and as a duty I owe to those Americans who so firmly adhered to their American sentiments, with the express understanding, however, that if the American party can be united on Mr. Fillmore, or such a platform as I now occupy, I may be at liberty at any time hereafter, to withdraw this acceptance.

☞ The Bowling Green Standard says:

Gov. Helm addressed the people on Monday, at the Court House in this place, in reference to the condition and prospects of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. We only heard the closing part of his speech, the principal object of which appeared to be to induce the people of the county to buy their own county bonds, to enable the company to prosecute the work on the road without cessation.

PALMER, THE POISONER.—The execution of Palmer, the poisoner, took place at Stefford, June 13. By 8 o'clock in the morning there were not less than 20,000 persons present, who exhibited the utmost decorum. Every available inch of ground was occupied both in front and around the jail. Precisely at the hour appointed for the execution the culprit appeared on the drop. He looked exceedingly well, and had passed an excellent night. It had been announced that he would address the multitude on the scaffold, and considerable anxiety was apparent as to the tenor of his remarks. He did not, however, say anything. He was accompanied by the sheriff, chaplain, and the other officials connected with the prison, dress a suit of grey. None of his relatives were present, but many of his friends of the turf were witnesses to the sad spectacle.—Upon the unfortunate man's appearance, the cap was placed over his face by Smith, of Dudley, who performed the duties of executioner, and the rope having been adjusted, in an instant the earthly career of the greatest criminal recorded in the annals of history was at an end. He made no confession; even yesterday he desired that the visits of Mr. Wright, the prison philanthropist, should be discontinued, it being alleged that he did not desire to be induced to disclose the truth of the offense with which he was charged.

HADDONFIELD, N. J. April 20.
I was attacked by a severe pain in the side, in the region of the liver. I suffered intensely through the whole winter. During all this time I was confined to my house, had a violent cough, raised much bloody matter, and was supposed by myself and others to be in the last stages of Consumption. The February following when apparently life was at a close, I procured a bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. As soon as I commenced its use, I began to grow better. The soreness of my side grew less, the cough gradually left me, the profuse expectoration and spitting of blood ceased, and my general health became by degress restored. I was soon enabled to resume my trade, that of a carpenter, which I have continued without interruption. I will further remark that this remarkable cure was effected by only three bottles of the Balsam.

☞ Where can it be had? and what is it good for? are inquiries that are being made every day, in all parts of the Union, in regard to Porter's Oriental Life Liniment. We answer all at once, it is good only for such diseases that require an external application in man or beast. It can be had of nearly all respectable Druggists and country store keepers, everywhere, at twenty-five cents per bottle. Dealers wanting fresh supplies of the Oriental Life Liniment can get it by ordering direct from the principal depot, No. 327 Main street, Louisville, Kentucky; and those that prefer it, can have their orders promptly attended by ordering from any of the wholesale Druggists of this city, or from John D. Park, Cincinnati, Ohio. Dealers in medicine everywhere should keep a supply on hand, as it sells rapidly, pays good profit, and gives general satisfaction. d&w

☞ The great rush at Troxel's Ambrotype and Sphereotope Gallery within the last week, only show that the people appreciate the superiority of his beautiful pictures. Hot weather, instead of diminishing, has increased his business, as people have found out he can make fine pictures with light dresses, which is quite an object this warm weather. We would recommend all our friends to give him a call, as he is making pictures in less time than any other operator in the city, and superior. His reception rooms are by far the largest and most comfortable in the city, which in connection with the fine Ambrotypes and Sphereotypes, he is making for customers accounts for the extraordinary business he is doing. His rooms are on Main street between Second and Third, over the House Telegraph Office. dtf

NOTORIETY NOT ALWAYS ENVIABLE.—Jack Sheppard was one of the most notorious men of his time. Emeal Brae is so notorious that not long since he was politely invited to leave the National Hotel. Pickpockets are generally notorious if they are adept in their art. Bed-bugs are a notoriously offensive vermin and notoriously plenty at this time of year. Our Court House is so notorious that it figures conspicuously in a recent English book. It owes its notoriety less to its unfinished condition than to its decided inclination to decay. It is highly probable that a certain description of picture, called patent Ambrotype, is rapidly gaining this species of notoriety.

Harris' Collodiotypes are popular. They get their name from Collodion, an article well known in surgery, in and of which they are made.—This is as plain as the nose on a man's face.

Harris will be pleased to show it—that is the picture, not the nose—to all who call at his Gallery, on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth. dtf

THE FOURTH OF JULY.—The Subscriber has a few rounds of his premium Spiced Beef, which he will deliver to any one who may want such for parties or pic-nics, ready cooked, on getting two days' notice. He has also a new article, which he calls Usher's Cold Pressed Beef, and particularly recommends it to families this hot weather.

THIRTY-FOURTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, July 1.

SENATE.—Mr. Cass said that very grave transactions had occurred on the Pacific coast, according to accounts just received, into which an examination ought to be made.

Gov. Stevens, of Washington Territory, has proclaimed martial law there, and arrested the Judge of the District Court. He did not desire to prejudice the case, but this certainly seemed a great assumption of power. He submitted a resolution calling on the President for the facts in regard to the matter. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Callamer, from the committee on territories, submitted a minority report, which was read and ordered to be printed.

The Kansas bill was taken up.

Mr. Thomson was to some extent favorable to the measure reported yesterday, by the committee on territories, but would prepare to have the government take strict measures with the territories, and treat them as a father did his bad boys, who used to give them a flogging every morning, because he knew they would do something wrong before night to deserve it. [Laughter.] He thought it ridiculous that a young territory only two years old should set itself against the lawful authorities, its progenitor. He wanted the laws strictly enforced, and enough military sent to do it.

He descanted on Fremont's qualifications for the presidency, and alluded to the state of political parties generally, and dissected the various platforms. He was not satisfied with either the Republican or Democratic platforms, but the Philadelphia platform was able, sensible, and patriotic. But still above all other platforms he preferred the Whig platform of '52, and under the good old Whig banner he would live and die. He hoped all old Whigs would follow his example, and not stray away after false gods.

Mr. Bigler advocated the bill reported yesterday, by the committee on territories, as being the best remedy for the existing troubles in Kansas.

Mr. Hale liked the bill very well and thought it was a much fairer proposition than could have been expected, considering the source from whence it emanated, but a difficulty was likely to be. This administration in carrying it out would not dose in a fair and impartial manner. He pointed out other objections to the hill.

Mr. Adams moved to amend the bill by striking out that part which gives the right of suffrage to all persons, who shall have filed their declaration of intention to become citizens of the United States in compliance with the natnralization laws.

Mr. Crittenden hoped the amendment would be adopted. He thought those foreigners who had declared their intention to become citizens had no more right to vote than those who made no such declaration.

Adjonrned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Barclay moved a reconsideration of the vote hy which the Kansas bill was rejected yesterday, and in assigning his reasons for doing so, said he was informed that warrants are in this district directing the arrest of Gov. Reeder for treason.

This he regarded as farcical and was disposed to rebuke it by now voting for the bill in order to protect the people of Kansas.

Mr. Houston expressed regret that the gentleman had charged his mind, rather in consequence of persuasions or by other means.

Mr. Barclay replied that he had acted from a conscientious sense of duty, and would not be intimidated by the lash.

Mr. Houston disavowed any intention to impeach the integrity of the gentleman; nor did he mean to censure him for the course taken.—He then moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Houston moved that Mr. Barclay's motion to reconsider be laid on the table before any further action be taken.

Mr. Seward rose to a question of privilege, wishing to make a report from the Kansas investigating committee. A debate ensued, involving he point that if the report should be received as complete, it would preclude Mr. Oliver, of Mo., from submitting a minority report.

The Speaker said a report in part could be made with the consent of the House.

Mr. Howard, in reply to an inquiry, said the report contained everything which the committee wished to present, but he expressed the hope that Mr. Oliver would be allowed a reasonable time in which to make his report.

Mr. Oliver said he was not with his colleages when they prepared their report, nor had he a right to anticipate its character. It was impossible for him to prepare a minority report without knowing the contents of the majority report.

Mr. Sherman explained that he and Mr. Howard arrived here Saturday morning, and Mr. Oliver that evening, when the latter was told the report had been prepared and was at his service.

Mr. Oliver replied he was then fatigued with travel, and the next day was Sabbath, when it could not be epected that he should enter into a laborious investigation.

Other explanations followed during which Mr. Florence remarked he understood from what had been said, the report had not been formally submitted to the committee, therefore it could not be received as the report of that committee.

Much confusion prevailed throughout the proceedings, and a contest ensued, the House being divided as to whether the report should be received or not. Various points of order was raised.

Mr. Jones, of Tenuessee hoped his party friends would withdraw their objectious.

Finally Mr. Hickman successfully moved the report be read.

The members, the better to hear, drew ap their seats in an area fronting the clerk's desk. The clerk read some of the report.

Adjourned.

CHICAGO, July 1.

At Lexington, four pieces of cannon, loaded and primed, were on the shore, and three more on the steam ferry-boat, in a position to sink the steamer at the first fire. The captain's own family went ashore, and entreated the emigrants to give up their arms, which was done. At six o'clock next morning, the Company proceeded peaceably to Kansas City, where 100 Southerners came on board, armed with muskets and bayonets, commanded by Jones, Stringfellow, and Atchison, took possession of the lower deck, surrounded the gangway, and refused to let any one go below on pain of death. When they arrived at Leavenworth, 200 ruffians surrounded the boat. Atchison told the emigrants that their decision was to keep them on the heat till her return, and not to allow them to land at any point above Lexington. If they would return to Alton, they pledged their honor that their arms would be returned at the termination of hostilities. The emigrants took an inventory of arms still in their possession, and found only 15 rifles and pistols, and concluded resistance was useless. They returned on Saturday night, and were put ashore four miles below Alton. The captain, pretending to fear violence, stopped there. The Company will proceed to the Territory immediately via Iowa City.

A company from Worcester, Mass., arrived today, en route for Kansas.

The statement of the St. Louis Republican, concerning the Chicago Society, is entirely false.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.

A letter to the Democrat from Lawrence, of the 28th, says five men had arrived at that place from Tecumseh, where they had been confined some time as prisoners. They were captured by dragoons on the 27th of May, near Osawatomie, their arms taken away, chains put upon them, and driven thirty miles by troops on horses. The dragoons were under Lieut Iverson. They were chained nearly four weeks, and when brought before Judge Cato, were discharged, nothing being found against them. Three of the party captured were detained, Messrs. Partridge, John Brown jr., and Wiliams. The two latter were members of the Legislature; the former was released on bail. Indictments were found against Brown for treason, cousiracy, kidnapping slaves, and horse stealing, and against Williams for treason, and Partridge for conspiracy. Hoyt and Legate, arrested a few days since by Harvey and the dragoons under Lieut. Perkins, have been released on bail.

WASHINGTON, July 1.

During the Fillmore demonstration last night Mayor Magruder, while endeavoring to suppress a disturbance among a crowd of young men in the vicinity of the meeting, the most of whom were under the the excitement of liquor, was surrounded and attacked, but the police and several members of the old night watch, including Capt. Burch, formed a body guard for his protection. Mr. Magruder was struck with a brick and a slung shot, but was not seriously hurt. The mob followed for half a mile, crying "kill him." Mr. Magruder was finally induced to enter the Kirkwood House, where, by persuasion, the mob was induced to disperse. A man with a slung shot was arrested by Magruder. The riot was confined to boys.

WASHINGTON, July 1.

NEW YORK, July 1.

The Herald says an armed expedition is fitting out here and in Southern cities to proceed to Mexico to assist the Government of that country.

Advices from Venezuela report that the insurrection there was becoming serious. The insurgents had captured four towns and were marching on Bolivar.

CHICAGO, July 1.

The company of 44 men from Worcester, Mass. on the steamer Sultana, en route for Kansas were stopped and disarmed on Friday at Waverly, Mo., on the river 10 miles below Lexington by 200 Southerners. They announced it as their intention to take them up the river and detain them as prisouers or dispose of them to suit emergencies. 60 Sharpe's rifles were taken by the mob. It is reported that the company from Ottowa, Ills., were treated in the same way.

On Saturday the determination was announced that the river towns would permit no more emigrants from the Northern States to go into Kansas. The correspondent of the St. Lous Democrat under date "Jefferson City, Jnne 28th." charges Gov. Starling Price with having sent twelve pieces of cannot and 22 boxes of muskets from the arsenal up the river to Stringfellow to assists in the conquest of Kansas.

WASHINGTON, June 30.

There is a large and enthusiastic American meeting here to-night, with cannon, and music, and pyrotchenics. The front of the City Hall is splendidly adorned with the revolutionary flags which were presented by Lafayette to Washington. Senator Crittenden is among the speakers.

Consumption Cured.

DAILY'S Inhaling Vapor is used in the cure of diseases of the Lungs. Worn on the breast, the heat of the body causes an evaporation, which will be constantly inhaled by the patient, passing gently into all the air cells and passages of the lungs, and exhilarating every part with a soothing and healing vapor, while the patient is taking Daily's Extract of Ginseng or Honey Syrup, for the cough and debility, and the Balsam of Wild Cherry, for the impure state of the blood. It is acknowledged by all that by inhaling marsh miasma, or noxious vapors or air, the lungs become diseased. Is it not equally true that, supplying the lungs with an invigorating and healing medicine, will restore them to health?

Dr. Daily keeps on hand a general supply of Family Medicines of his own compounding, to cure diseases incident to our climate. Daily's Pain Extractor, 25 cents per five dollars, can be had at Daily's Pain Extractor Depot, No. 78 Second street, between Market and Jefferson.

URBAN'S SAFES.

C. URBAN, Esq.: Dear Sir—We take pleasure in expressing our entire satisfaction in the utility of your Salamander Safes, of which we had two in use at our liquor and Rectifying establishment, on Sycamore street, when the late severe conflagration occurred. Surrounded by the most combustible material, and remaining for nearly two days in the burning ruins, our surprise was beyond description in finding, after opening said Safes everything in good order. In tendering to you our sincere gratification, we do not hesitate to recommend your Safes to those in want of such an article, as we know from experience that they truly are what they represent to be, "fire proof."

We remain very truly yours,
WILSHIRE, BRISTOL & CO.
Cincinnati, Oct., 1853.

I would call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the above letter, handed to me by Messrs. W., B. & Co., extensive liquor merchants.—It is well known by the Cincinnati public that several of my Safes, of different sizes, have stood, of late, very severe tests. Among others, I would refer to the great Mr. Scovill's druggist; that of Messrs. Jarvie & Co., Iron merchants and founders; that of Mr. Shillito, soap and candle factor; that of Messrs. Giraud & carran, liquor and wine merchants. The Safes all came out victorious, although surrounded by the most combustable material.

Having acquired all the late improvements, I dare say that my Safes are inferior to none made this side the mountains. As to the outer appearance, I combine neatness with durability. Thankful for past favors, a continuation of patronage is kindly solicited.

Williams's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir

IS, with the utmost confidence, offered to the Medical Faculty and the public, for the cure of Dyspepsia or indigestion, and all diseases arising from it, such as

Nausea, Headache,
Vertigo, Dimness of Sight,
Debility of the Nervous System,
Hypochondria, Jaundice,
Loss of Appetite,
Wasting of the strength,
Flatulence, with frequent belching of Wind,
Vitiated taste,
Constipation and uneasiness o: the bowels,
Bilious Vomiting,
Burning sensation at the pit of the stomach,
Liver Complaint,
Oppression after eating,
Palpitation of the Heart,
Pain in the pit of the stomach, or towards the right side,
Sallowness of complexion,
Depression of spirits and irritability of temper, &c.

If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensue, for it lays the foundation for, is the incipient cause of, and very frequently terminates in consumption. I would impress upon the mind that to trifle with this disease, may be to sport with that reason which constitutes man super-eminent among animal beings, or to endure existence by adding a consciousness of folly to the penalty or pain.

This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances: the most delicate stomach can bear it conveniently, and its powers will perform a perfect cure in the most tender infants, its properties being of a strengthening and invigorating nature. It is neatly put up in bottles, with ample directions for use.

The following is a communication from some well known and respectable citizen of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the tried efficacy of the Anti Dyspeptic Elixir.

Attestation.

We, having used William's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir with the most perfect satisfaction and success, take great pleasure in recommending it to all persons suffering with Dyspepsia, as we are fully convinced of its most estimable qualities in restoring the digestive powers, removing all pain and uneasiness, and imparting a healthy tone to the stomach.

This list of names could be extended to almost any length, but the foregoing is deemed sufficient.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1853.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, depondency, sense of weight in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Fortunately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nervous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost miraculous; and impels me in writing to you to—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.

I am, dear sir, yours truly,

WALLACE, LITHGOW & CO.,

STOVE, GRATE, COPPER, TIN, SHEET-IRON AND HOLLOW-WARE MANUFACTURERS,

No. 536, Northwest corner Main and Third streets

Louisville, Ky,

IN calling the attention of dealers in our line in this market, we would state that during the last six months our attention has been directed to getting up a large number of new Stove and Grate Patterns, which, added to our already large stock, gives us one of the most extensive and diversified assortments in the western market. Among the number, we would refer to our "Ashland Kentucking" Cook Stove, (three sizes out.) These Stoves have great weight of metal, highly finished and elegant in appearance. They combine all the modern improvements that practical experience has developed.

We would invite dealers to call and examine for themselves, and we think in quality, price, &c., they can be suited. Having enlarged our manufacturing department, we can promptly meet all demands. Thankful for the patronage which has been so kindly bestowed upon us, we trust, by strict and prompt attention to all orders, to secure a continuance of it. And the quality of our manufactured work shall be, as heretofore, equal if not superior to the best, and satisfaction given in all cases.
